Family Employment Readiness Program (FERP)

One of the goals of this FFSC is to provide the military service member and their family members with career development options. We provide the tools that are necessary to make informed career choices. Tools may include information on education, resume writing, interviewing, job search, dressing for success, job fairs and networking, entrepreneurship and volunteering.

This program is not just for the military service member - spouses are strongly encouraged to take advantage of this valuable tool. To find out more, please contact the FFSC at (866) 2115 or 323-1248.

Military spouses are enthusiastically invited to participate in FFSC programs.

For information on the CONSEP or the FERP, please contact Susan Endres at (732) 323-1248 or (732) 866-2115.

"TALK TIME"

The phone lines are open Monday through Friday during operating hours for parents to call in with their questions, concerns and challenges. Speak to the FFSC counselor, Mr. Bill Ryan, about parenting and family issues
